DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 16-22, 24-34, 36, and 61-63 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Johnson et al. (US 6,598,029).

Johnson et al. disclose a method for scheduling a device producing, consuming, storing, or transporting electricity based upon a scheduling interval collection comprising at least one scheduling interval, said at least one interval commodity and a cost of said amount over a scheduling time interval, comprising the steps of said computer:

managing a bid interval collection of bid interval of said electricity commodity, each bid interval comprising: a bid price and a bid amount over a bid time interval (col.9, line 33-col.11, line 60; also “The Moderator and/or each control computer can maintain each Provider's list of approved Buyers, with or without applicable credit or capacity limits. Updates can be transmitted by each Provider to the Moderator at periodic intervals.”);

determining a desired amount of said electricity commodity over a desired scheduling time interval (“This transmission of processed energy usage data can be initiated by a query from the Moderator or the applicable control computer to the Adjunct Computer or can be downloaded at periodic intervals by the Adjunct Computer to the Moderator or the control computer.”);

Art Unit: 3628

determining a resultant interval collection based upon said desired amount of said electricity commodity over said desired scheduling time interval and based upon said managed bid time interval collection to create and output a device operating schedule (col.13, lines 1-15) making a first bid interval of a first bid amount at a first bid price for a first time interval to create a first bid of said bid interval collection (col.16, lines 49-64);

creating a first-bid interval of said bid interval collection comprising said first bid amount as said bid amount, said first bid price as said bid price, said first time interval as said bid time interval (col.16, lines 49-64);

wherein each of said intervals of said interval collection further contains an amount of said electricity commodity; and wherein the step creating said first scheduling interval is based upon said first contracted bid interval (col.16, lines 49-64; col.19, line 38-col.20, line 51).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 16-22, 24-34, 36, and 61-63 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3628

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
